Coach's Pledge

I, _____, having applied to coach with the Saskatoon Ringette Association, hereby pledge to carry out the duties and responsibilities of my position based on the Coach's Code, since I believe that the "conduct of coaches must be of the highest standard in such an influential position with young people." I will adhere to the declared principles of:

- Provision of equitable opportunity to all participants;
- Insistence on the highest standard of sportsmanship;
- Opponents and spectators being treated with respect at all times;
- A sound knowledge of the rules of the game;
- The rules being regarded as mutual agreements and the spirit or letter of which no one should try to evade or break;
- Officials being present to ensure that the rules are enforced in the designed manner.
- Decisions of officials are to be treated as honest in intent;
- No advantage, except those of superior skills, are to be sought over opponents; and
- Acceptance of winning or losing graciously.

By way of this application, I hereby give my consent to Saskatoon Ringette Association to:

- access and use the personal information contained in this application form and/or resume, if submitted.
- contact the references named in this application form or provided in an interview;
- conduct a criminal record check of myself; and
- use any information collected as per above to assess my experience and suitability for the applied coaching position.
